

Vendor Rules, Responsibility, and Information Form:

Vendors are responsible to bring or supply the following items for themselves. You are renting a booth space.

Cages: There MUST be enough room for the animal to stand, turn, and lay down, without being over crowded. The only exception to this is pea fowl and long tailed pheasants that must be boxed for the tails to remain unbroken.

Boxes/Bags: These will be used for people to carry home the products purchased from you. Animals will require boxes and the animals cannot be over crowded. Remember the animals will NEED air holes! Bring a box cutter! And tape for the boxes.

Money: You will be responsible for supplying your own change for purchases made at your booth.

Feed: You will be responsible for bringing your own feed for your animals. None will be provided. Every animal must have feed and water!

Tables: You will need to bring any tables, shelving, or stands you plan to use. None are provided.

Chairs: If you plan to take a seat, bring that seat.

Plastic or Tarp: This will be placed under your animal pens and cages. We cannot allow the animal pens to be set up without them. Crafters do not need them. You will need to bring tent pegs or stakes and a hammer to secure your tarps and plastic down.

Dishes for Feed and Water: Remember, you supply the feed, but the water is on us.

Bucket: Water will be on us, but you still must haul it to your booth. Water taps are available near the bay door.

Extension Cord: If you need electricity, remember to bring your extension cords. Bring more than you think you may need as we occasionally must spread people out a little further than planned.

Table Covering: If you plan on a table and you want to have it covered, remember to bring one with you.

Signs: If you want signs at your booth, remember those, it will help to draw in your customers. Most of the booths do not have a wall to hang signs. Remember a sturdy stand for your signs.

Bedding: If you plan to use straw, shredded paper, shavings, or anything else, remember those for your animals. Also remember that the box or display for the animals must keep that stuff from being spread all over the place.

Heat Lamps: If you are bringing any young stock, please remember to bring your heat lamps to keep them warm. Also, remember to tell us you need electricity!

Lights: If you need any extra light, please bring.
